MOTTO:

Enlightening the Essence of Education

LOGO:

The logo of CICS College of Teacher Education depicts a book and a glowing bulb surrounded by a four leaf Clover representing students sitting in a group, pooling their ideas and seeing problems in different perspectives. The motto of the logo is 'Enlightening the Essence of Education'. The Book represents any source of information or skill that develops with the proper scaffolding of teacher which serves as the bulb glowing brightly and enlightening the essence of education. The four leaf Clover highlights four essential elements that students need in order to thrive, learn and develop: Active Engagement, Assertiveness, Belongingness and Reflection. By designing programs in education wherein each of these elements gets nourished, students can work towards their personal and professional balance. Striving for balance between the four leaves of the Clover can help students achieve positive mental health.

VISION:

We envision embarking a teacher education programme that endorses integration of teaching and learning advancement through research, scholarship and leadership in service and outreach.

MISSION:

- To build competent teachers well versed in the art and science of teaching; focus on 'learning to know' and exhibit true professionalism in the field of education.
- To empower student-teachers with pedagogic principles and enable them to implement their innovative ideas in schools.
- To enthuse prospective teachers to be adaptable, open to change and be role models in society.
- To promote the student-teachers' proximal potential with a view to realize sociocultural values of the society.
- To facilitate a modern outlook to meet the challenges of the 21st century.
- To train the new generation teachers to preserve the values of the society and to redefine the role of teachers in the context of crisis, disaster management.
- To initiate and collaborate with Government and Non-government organizations in community welfare activities, so as to channelize the expansion of education from institution to society.

To equip the teacher trainee to meet the global challenges and adapt to both off line and online teaching learning skills.

1) Induction Day

Report

Date : 22nd September 2022
Time : 10:00 AM
Venue : CICS College of Teacher Education

The B.Ed. program for the 2022–2024 batch officially commenced on 22nd September 2022 with a thoughtfully organized Induction Day Program, aimed at welcoming and orienting new students into the academic and professional realm of teacher education.

The session was led by Prof. Dr. C.N Balakrishnan Nambiar, who delivered a comprehensive introduction to the course structure, academic expectations, and the responsibilities that come with the teaching profession. He emphasized the vital role of educators in shaping society and encouraged students to approach the program with sincerity, curiosity, and a deep commitment to lifelong learning.

In addition to outlining the curriculum and practical components of the course, Dr. Nair also familiarized students with the institution’s code of conduct and core values, setting clear expectations for behaviour and performance.

The Induction Day served as a meaningful starting point for the new cohort, creating a positive and purpose-driven atmosphere that will guide them through their two-year journey toward becoming competent and compassionate educators.

2) Food Festival (THAKKARAM)

Report

Date : 17th October 2022
Time : 10:00 AM
Venue : CICS College of Teacher Education,

As part of the vibrant activities hosted by the Wings of Happiness Club, a delightful Food Festival was held on 17th October 2022 at CICS College of Teacher Education, TAKKARAM. The event was envisioned as a celebration of joy, unity, and cultural diversity, brought to life through an array of traditional and contemporary cuisines.

Under the thoughtful coordination of Smt. Shyja K. G. and Smt. Divya K. M., the festival witnessed enthusiastic participation from both students and staff. The highlight of the day was the diverse selection of homemade dishes, each representing unique regional flavours and culinary traditions. The spread transformed the venue into a feast for the senses—educational, flavourful, and heart-warming.

Beyond the delicious fare, the event created a lively platform for students to express their culinary creativity and teamwork. It also served as a much-needed break from academic routines, promoting well-being and reinforcing a strong sense of community on campus. The Food Festival was widely appreciated, leaving everyone with full hearts and fuller plates. It stood as a testament to the club's mission—to spread happiness and nurture connections through shared experiences.

Report

Date : 21 October, 2022
Time : 10:00 AM
Venue : Assembly Hall

The English Department of our institution conducted an Inter-departmental Quiz Competition on October 21, 2022, aiming to encourage critical thinking and enhance general knowledge among students.

Participants from various departments enthusiastically took part in the event, making it both competitive and intellectually stimulating.

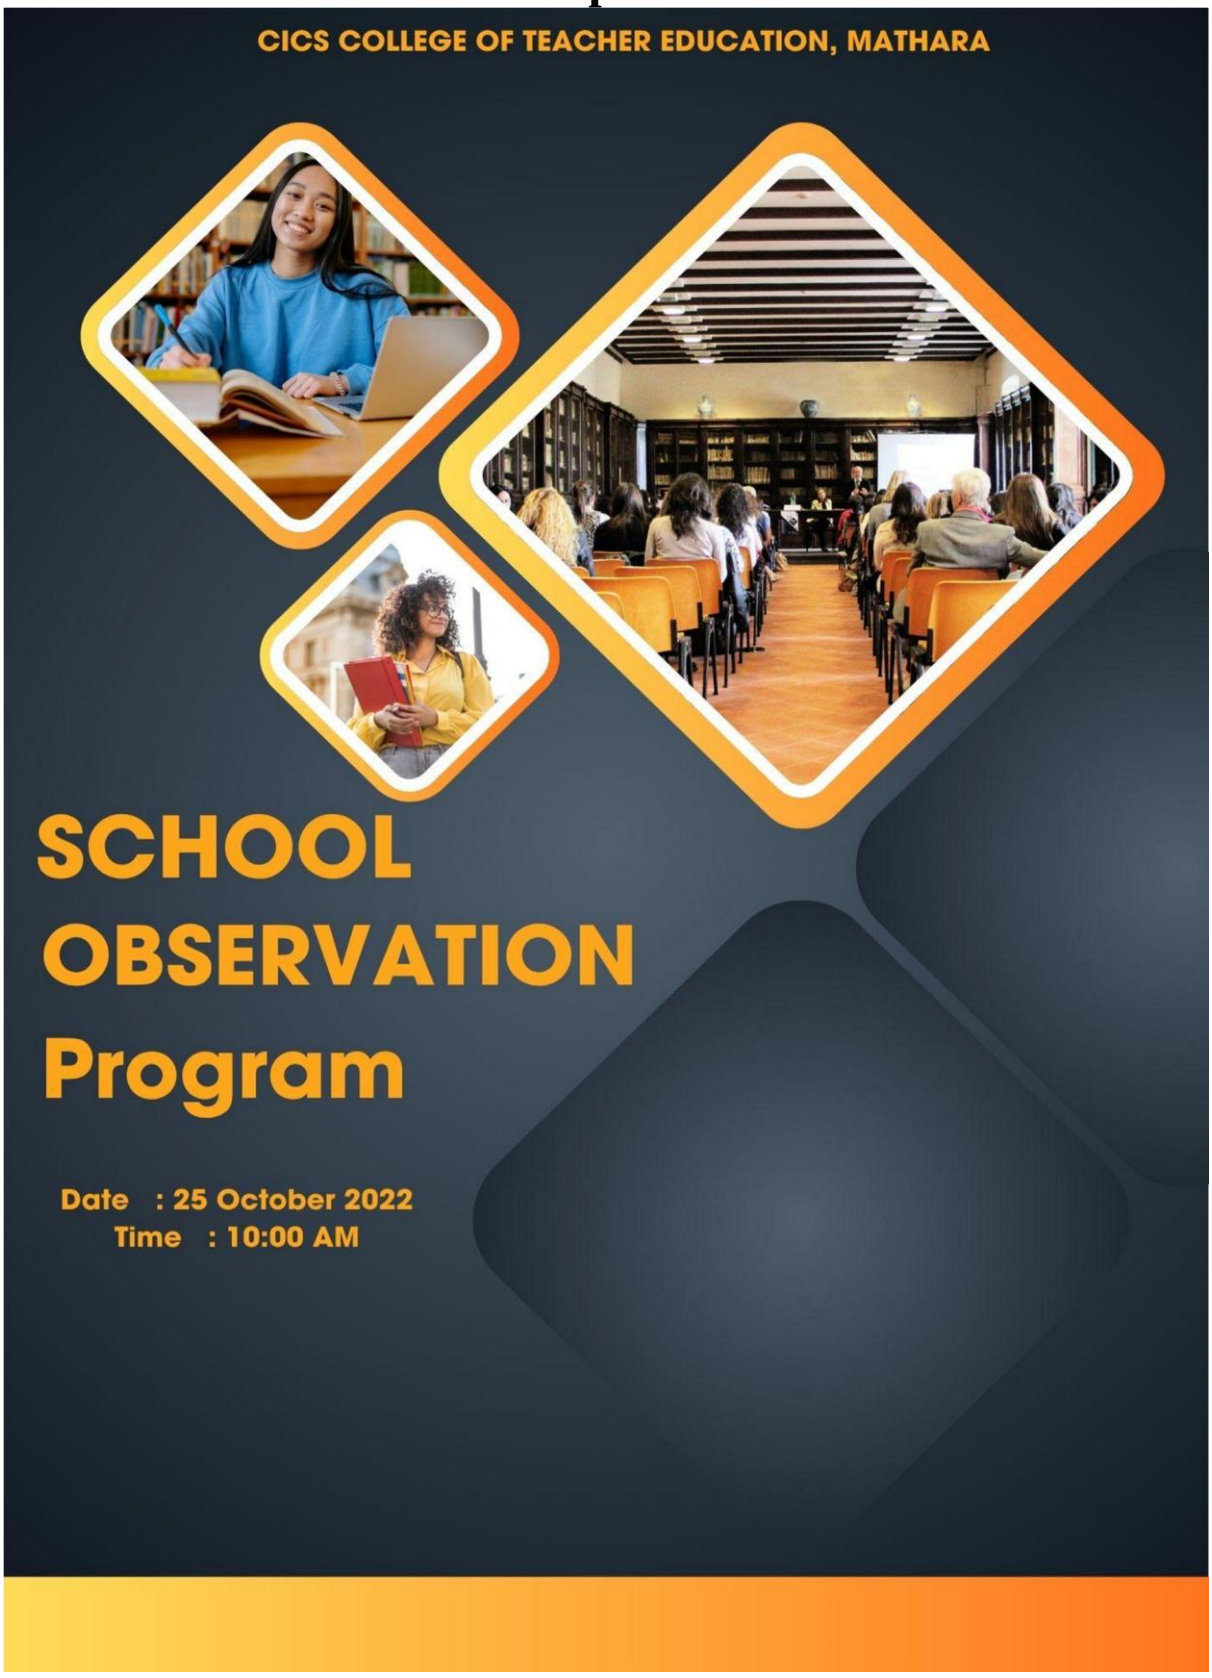

We are proud to announce that the winner of the competition was Mr.Murshid K P from the Social Science Department. His outstanding performance and quick responses earned him the top position.

The event was a great success, fostering healthy competition and promoting academic excellence.

4) Initiatory Practice

Report

Date : 25 October 2022

Time : 10:00 AM
Venue : School visit

As part of our teacher training curriculum, a School Observation Programme was conducted on 25th October 2022. The objective of the programme was to provide trainees with real-time exposure to school environments and classroom practices.

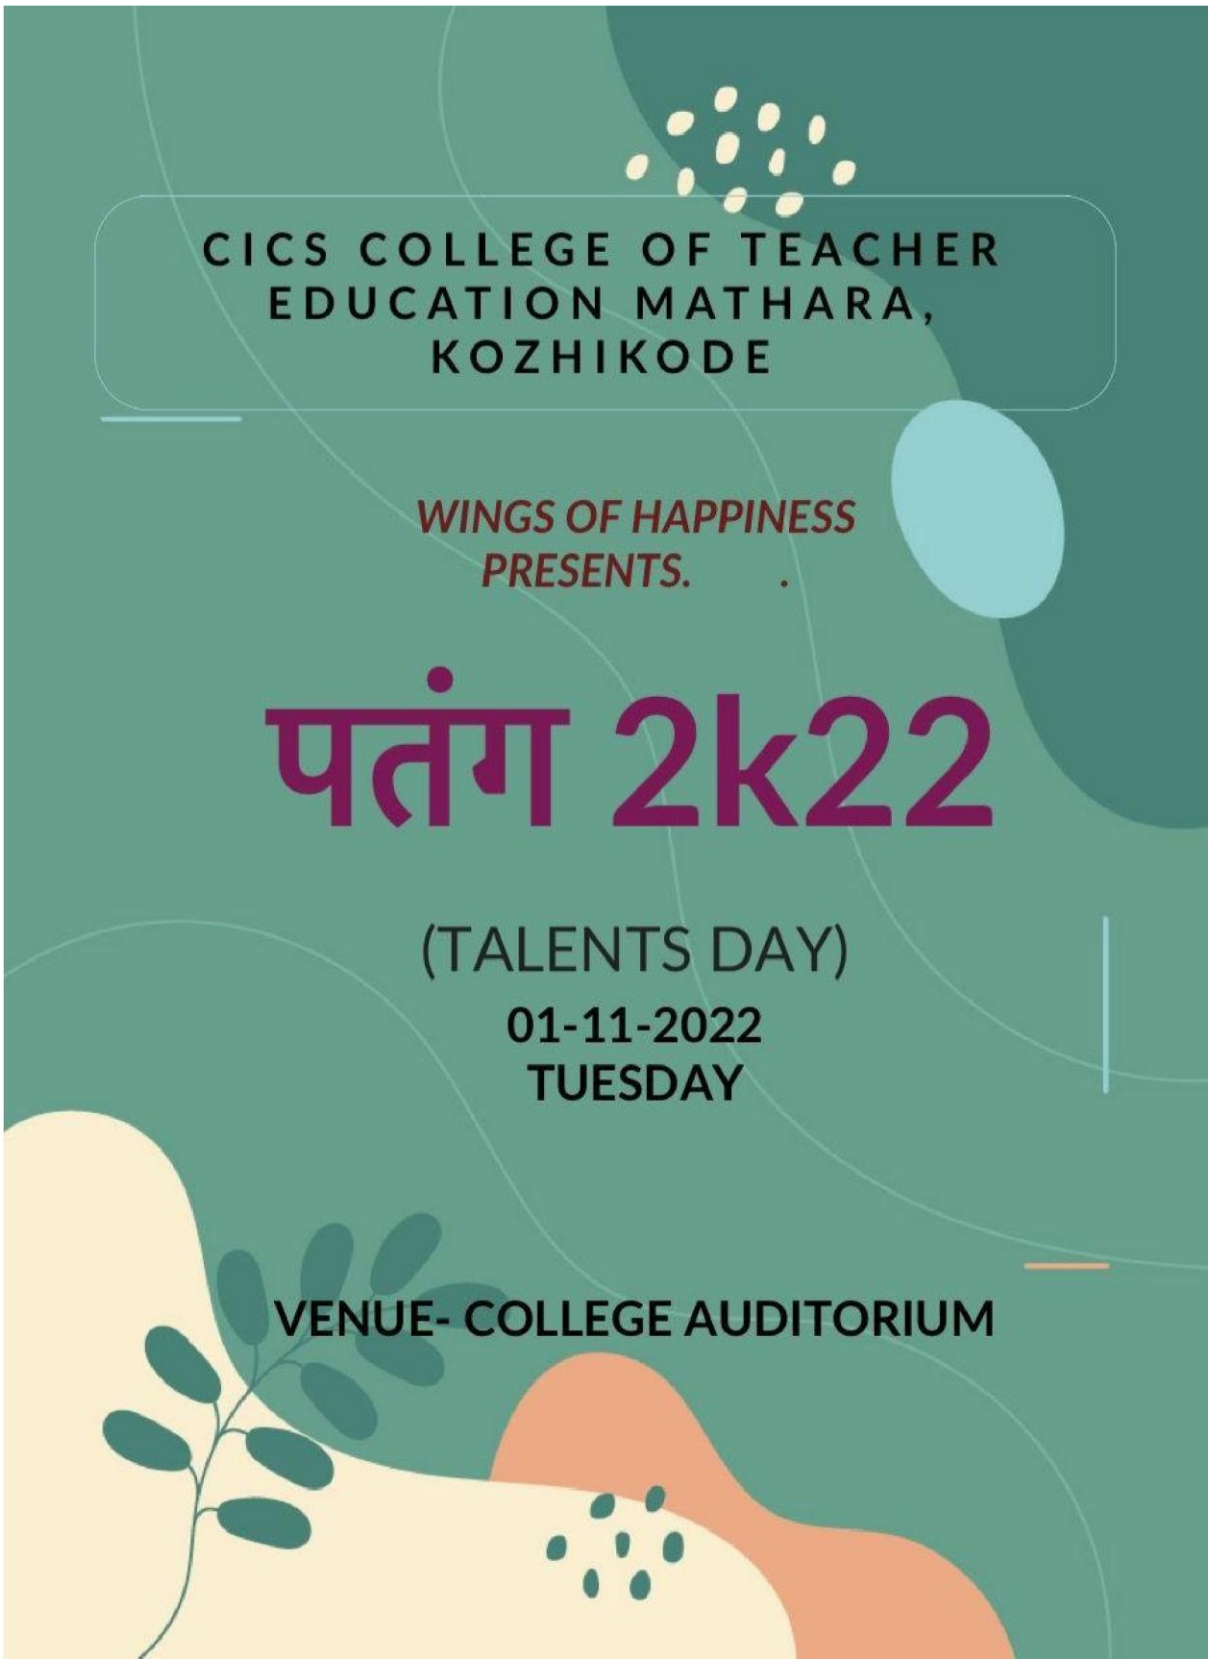

A total of four groups of student-teachers participated in the programme. Each group had the freedom to select a convenient nearby school for their observation visit. The participants visited four different schools and were given the opportunity to observe regular classroom sessions, student behaviour, and teaching methodologies.

This experience enabled the trainees to understand practical classroom dynamics, student engagement strategies, and school functioning. The programme proved to be highly informative and beneficial in bridging the gap between theoretical learning and practical teaching experience.

In his address, Mr. Murshid spoke about the significance of the day, urging students to uphold constitutional values and contribute meaningfully to society. His message was both inspiring and reflective, leaving a lasting impression on the audience.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks and the distribution of sweets, marking a day of national pride and educational reflection. The celebration reinforced the importance of civic responsibility and unity among future educators.

18) Literary and Creative Competitions in Connection with Republic Day

Report

Date : 27 January, 2023
Organized by : Department of Social Science

Venue : CICS College of Teacher Education

As part of the extended Republic Day Celebrations, the Department of Social Science at CICS College of Teacher Education organized a vibrant set of activities on January 27, 2023, designed to foster patriotism and creativity among students. The events included an Essay Writing Competition, a Drawing Competition, and a Digital Poster Making Competition—each aiming to reflect the spirit of national pride and civic consciousness.

In the Essay Writing Competition, participants explored thought-provoking themes such as the significance of the Indian Constitution, youth and nation-building, and the role of education in a democratic society. The essays showcased students’ critical thinking and their commitment to national values.

The Drawing Competition invited students to depict symbols of national heritage, unity in diversity, and freedom struggles. The artworks, full of imagination and meaning, were displayed around the campus and admired by faculty and students alike.

In the Digital Poster Making Competition, participants used digital tools to create visually compelling posters that echoed themes like sustainable development, Indian innovation, and national integrity. The entries highlighted students' digital literacy and their ability to communicate powerful messages through design.

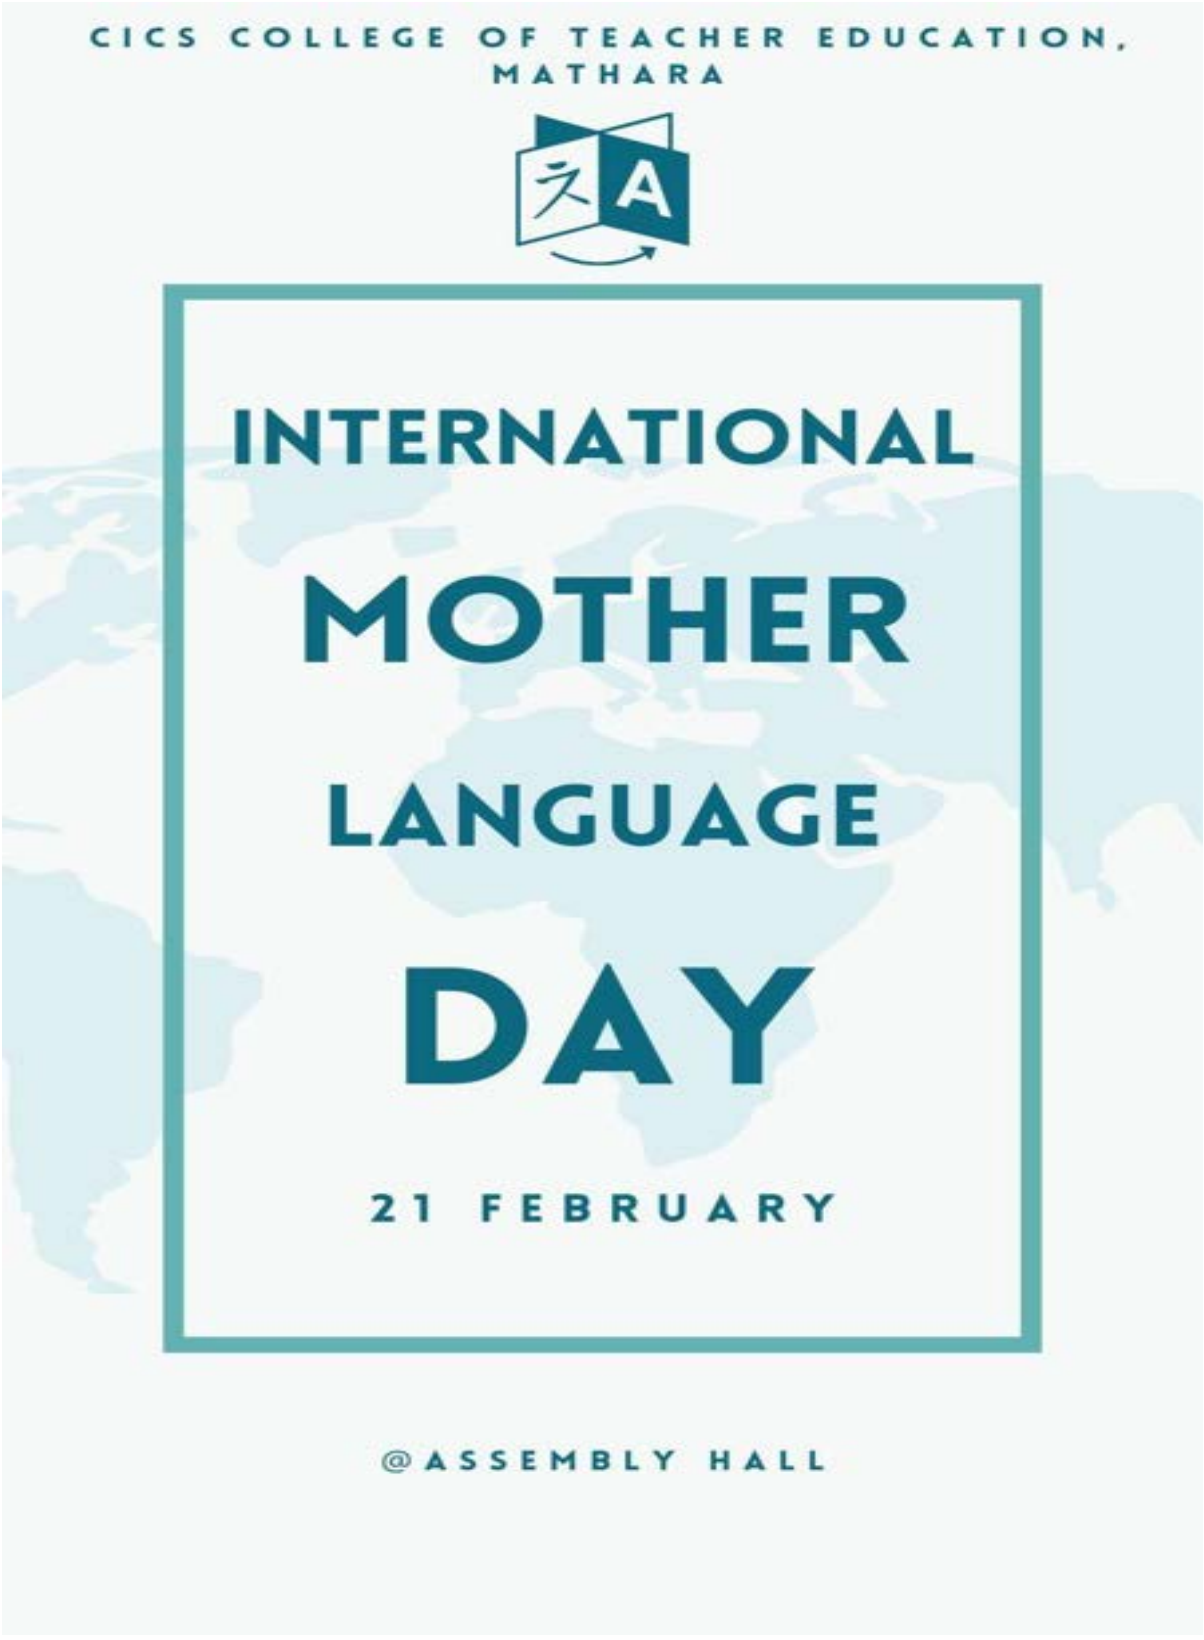

All competitions witnessed enthusiastic participation and were judged by faculty based on originality, relevance to the theme, and presentation. Winners were recognized with certificates and accolades, while all participants were appreciated for their effort and creativity.

These events provided a platform for students to express their patriotism in diverse forms, making the Republic Day celebrations truly meaningful and multifaceted.

19) Observance of "അന്തൊരൊഷ്ട്ട മൊത്യഭൊഷ് ദിനം" (International Mother Language Day)

Report

Date : 21 February, 2023
Venue : CICS College of Teacher Education
Organized by : Student Community

To honour the richness of linguistic diversity and promote the preservation of mother tongues, the student community of CICS College of Teacher Education observed International Mother Language Day (അന്താരാഷ്ട്ര മാതൃഭാഷ് ദിനം) on February 21, 2023, with a series of thoughtful, meaningful, and culturally vibrant activities.

The celebration commenced with a group song that beautifully encapsulated India’s linguistic mosaic, setting a harmonious and reflective tone. The performance resonated with the significance of embracing one's native language and celebrated the cultural depth carried by every mother tongue.

Following this, student-led speeches offered insightful perspectives on:

- The importance of preserving native languages
- The unifying power of multilingualism in national identity
- The role of future educators in fostering linguistic inclusivity within educational spaces

The event was not only a homage to India’s vast language heritage but also a collective appeal to cherish and uphold every language, irrespective of its scale or reach. It inspired pride in cultural identity and initiated meaningful conversations about language preservation and education.

In essence, the observance of International Mother Language Day served as a simple yet powerful reminder of the beauty in linguistic diversity—and the responsibility to nurture it.

20) National Science Day Celebration

Report

Date : 28 February 2023
Time : 10: AM
Venue : Assembly Hall,

CICS College of Teacher Education

To commemorate the discovery of the Raman Effect by Sir C.V. Raman, CICS College of Teacher Education celebrated National Science Day on 28th February 2023 with great enthusiasm and intellectual fervour.

🎙️ Inaugural Address

The program commenced in the Assembly Hall with a warm welcome, followed by an inspiring speech delivered by Assistant Principal Mrs Myrtle Victor. In her address, Mrs Victor emphasized the significance of scientific thinking in teacher education and encouraged students to cultivate a spirit of inquiry and innovation in their future classrooms. Her words resonated deeply with the audience and set the tone for the day's proceedings.

✍️ Caption Competition & 💡 Slogan Competition

Two vibrant competitions were held to spark creativity and scientific awareness among the students:

- Caption Competition: Participants were invited to submit engaging and thoughtprovoking captions related to science, technology, and innovation.
- Slogan Competition: Students crafted impactful slogans that celebrated the role of science in everyday life and its power to shape the future.

Both events were held in the Assembly Hall, where students enthusiastically showcased their originality and scientific insight. The entries reflected a broad range of ideas—from environmental sustainability to space exploration—highlighting the diverse interests of the student body.

🏆 Recognition

Winners of the competitions were awarded certificates of appreciation and received enthusiastic applause from their peers and faculty. The celebration successfully encouraged the spirit of scientific inquiry and underscored the importance of integrating science education with creativity.

21) Me help Mental Literacy Programm

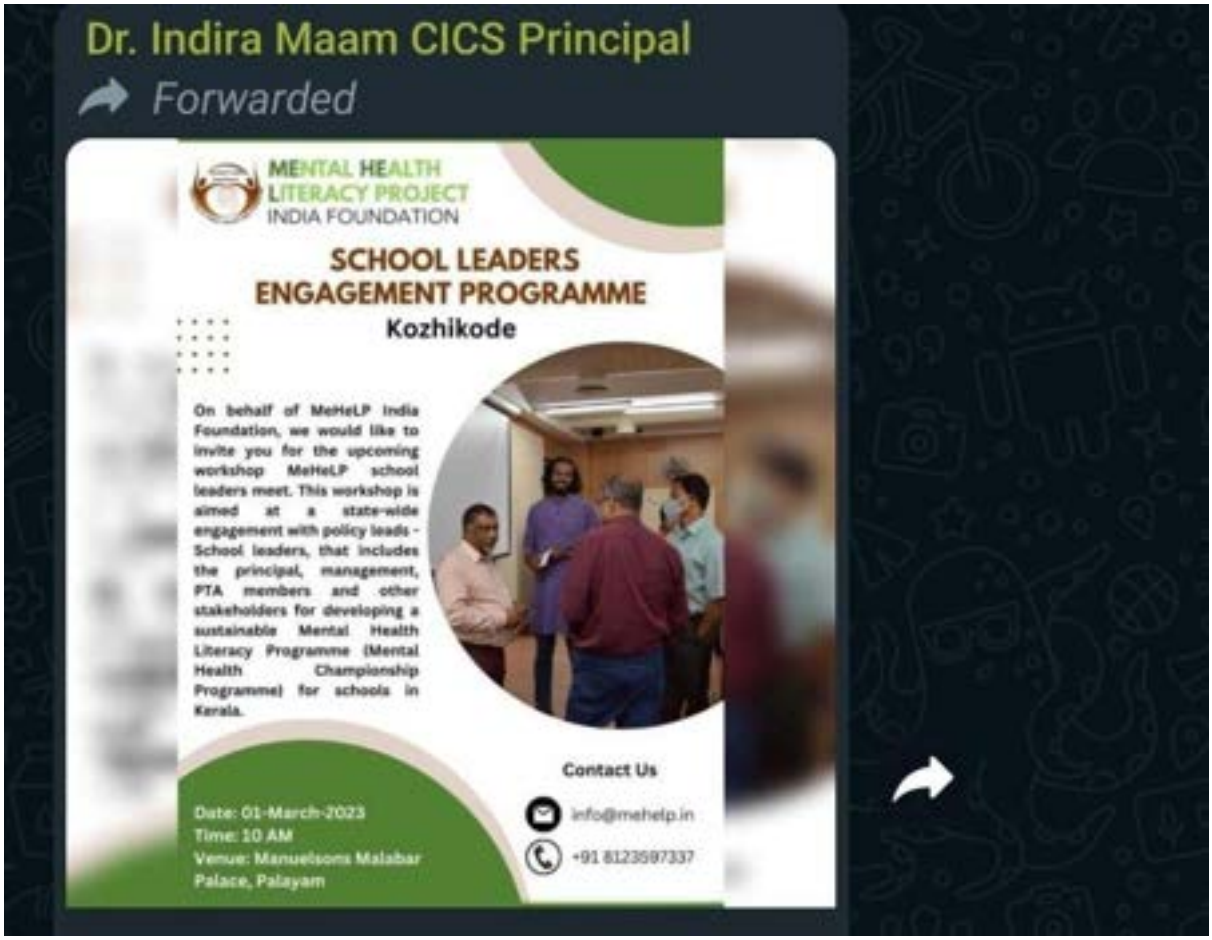

Report

Date : 1 March 2024 Time : 10:00 AM

Introduction

In an effort to promote mental wellness and emotional awareness among students and teachers, the Department of Education, De Montfort University organized a "ME HELP Mental Literacy Programme" on the 1st of March 2023. The session aimed to empower participants with tools to enhance emotional intelligence, manage stress, and foster a positive mental health culture in educational settings.

Objectives of the Programme

- To promote awareness about mental literacy and emotional well-being.
- To equip future teachers with coping strategies for stress and anxiety.
- To encourage open conversations about mental health in classrooms.
- To foster self-help and peer support practices.

Programme Highlights

The session began with a formal welcome address by the Resource Person Dr. R Raghavan, who emphasized the need for mental resilience in teaching professionals.

Key Segments of the Programme:

1. Interactive Talk on "Understanding Mental Literacy"

   The expert highlighted the importance of self-awareness, empathy, and mental fitness in everyday life and teaching.

2. Activity: “Emotional Mapping”

   Participants were guided to reflect on their daily emotional experiences and recognize emotional triggers through a simple mapping exercise.

3. Workshop on Stress Management Techniques

   Breathing exercises, mindfulness practices, and journaling tips were demonstrated to help student-teachers incorporate wellness habits into their routine.

1. Group Discussion: "ME Help – My Emotional Support Plan"

The participantswere divided into groups and asked to design personal support plans focusing on self-help, peer support, and when to seek professional help.

Outcomes

- Increased awareness among student-teachers about the significance of mental literacy.

- Participants reported better understanding of emotional regulation and stress coping mechanisms.

- The programme encouraged the development of an empathetic and supportive environment within the college.

Feedback

The feedback collected from the participants was overwhelmingly positive. Many appreciated the practical nature of the activities and expressed the desire for more such programmes to address student mental health proactively.

Conclusion

The ME HELP Mental Literacy Programme was a successful step towards fostering a mentally healthy academic community. It served as a reminder that mental strength and emotional well-being are as important as academic excellence in shaping competent and compassionate educators.

22) Community Extension Programme—

Financial Assistance Provided to a Needy Patient

Report

Date : 2 March 2023
Venue : Near Campus Vicinity

As part of its ongoing commitment to community welfare and social responsibility, the staff and students of CICS College of Teacher Education united in a compassionate effort to support a patient in urgent need of medical attention.

On 2nd March 2023, a financial contribution of Rs. 6,000 was handed over to a female patient residing near the campus, who had been bedridden for two months following an accident. The amount was raised entirely through voluntary contributions from both staff and students, demonstrating the spirit of empathy and solidarity within the college community.

The patient initially sought treatment at IQRA Medical College, but unfortunately, her condition showed little improvement. Acting on updated medical advice, she has now been referred for further specialized care in Vellore, where advanced treatment options are expected to improve her condition.

This thoughtful act of generosity highlighted the institution’s dedication to service beyond the classroom, and it served as a valuable lesson in humanity and civic engagement for all those involved.

#SaveWater

Report

Date : 3rd March 2023
Venue : College Court Yard
Organized by : CICS CTE

Due to the intense summer heat and rising temperatures, a thoughtful initiative titled പറവകൾക്കൊരു നീർകുടം was organized on 3rd March 2023 to support local bird life. Recognizing that birds often struggle to find water during scorching days, a group of students took the noble step of placing small clay pots filled with water at accessible spots to help quench the thirst of these voiceless creatures.

The programme was inaugurated by our respected manager, Prof. Muhammed Basheer, who symbolically poured water into the first pot, marking the beginning of the initiative. His kind gesture was followed by enthusiastic participation from students, who placed the pots with great care and compassion.

This small act of kindness not only brought relief to many birds but also instilled a deep sense of environmental responsibility among participants. The initiative was warmly appreciated by faculty and the local community alike.

24) International Women’s Day Celebration

“Women in Focus”

Each time a woman stands up for herself,

Without knowing it possibly,

Without claiming it, she stands up for all women-

MAYA ANGELOU

Introduction:

On March 8, 2023, the WOMENS CELL of CICS COLLEGE OF TEACHER EDUCATION under the coordination of Dr. Shimna Suresh along with the Principal, Management, faculty, students and non-teaching staff celebrated the International Women's Day with great enthusiasm and fervour under the banner WOMEN IN FOCUS. The event aimed to highlight menstrual health and education, normalise period education, introduce period products, work on strategies to ensure menstrual health and ultimately promote gender equality and women empowerment.

The coordinator had conducted a survey prior to the event to acknowledge the type of period products used by students, the support received from the environment in THOSE days and the associated issues they faced physically and emotionally, to address the issue. The data so collected were added to the power point presentation followed by a discussion in the afternoon session.

Snippets of arrangement of hall prior to commencing programme- ensuring equal participation

Event Details:

The event was held at the college auditorium, where all the students and faculty members were invited to participate. The session was inaugurated by a student selected through public poll. The day’s events began with a welcome address by Anagha NM followed by a speech by Sherin Shehanas, highlighting the significance of the day and the importance of GENDER EQUALITY. The compèrers of the programme Minnah and Indu kept the flow of the events smooth and organised. The technical assistance was ensured by Yadukrishna and Anfas, who with their Jugaad ideas tweaked innovatively in times of technical glitch.

Few pics from the day

Following the lecture, included cultural performances by the students, including a theme based dance performance on gender inequality. Special mention Divya Chandran, Anjima, Ashwathi.

The highlight of the event was a JAM session carried forward by students from each optional subject reflecting on various themes and topics based on gender inequality featuring taboos and stereotypes existing in the patriarchal society. Special mention- Nourin and Liyana. The event was followed by cultural activities including songs by faculty and students.

Additionally, the event featured a poster-on the theme "GENDER FLUIDITY," where students created signatures using vivid colours symbolising inclusion and empowerment. Special mention Ayana.

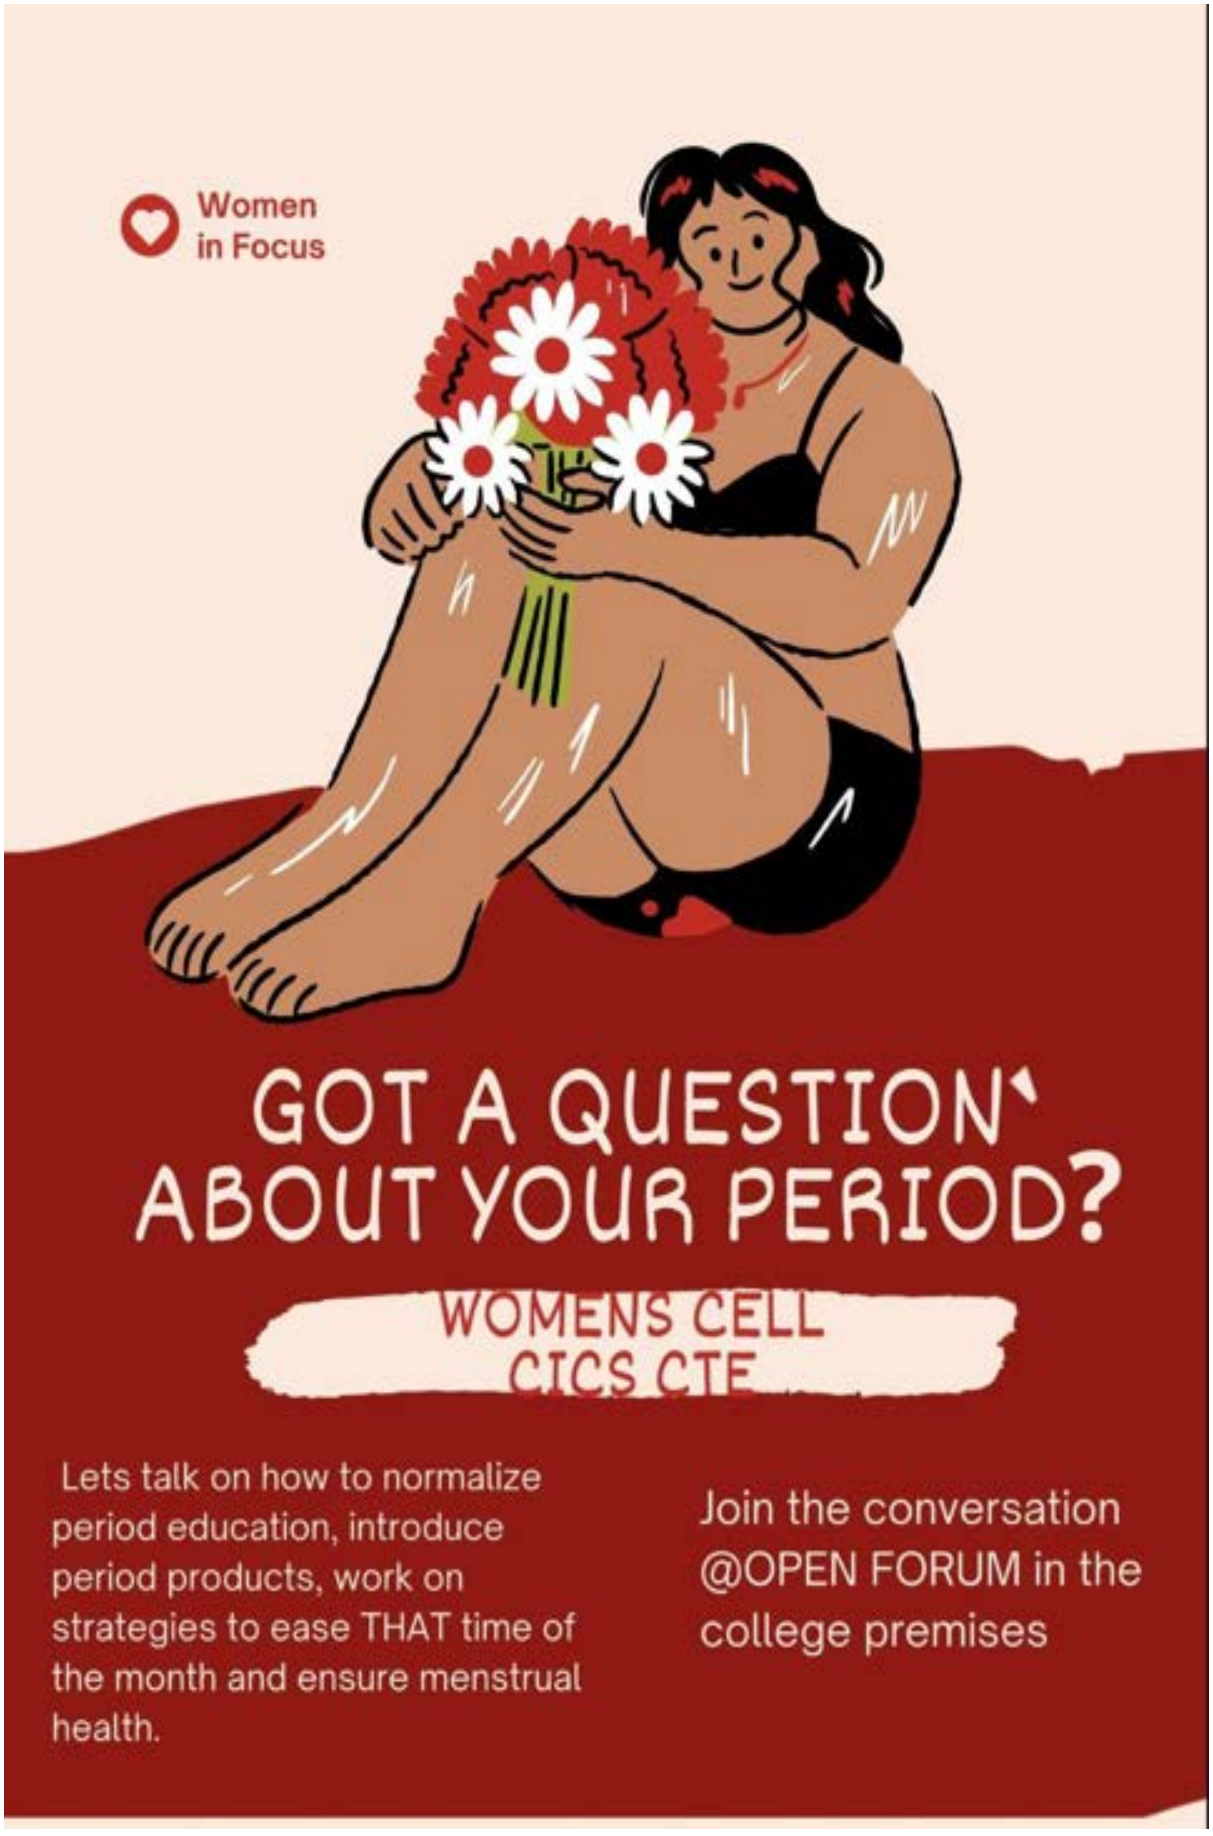

Our little guest of the day little Maria (student Minnah’s sister) entertained the students of CICS CTE with her showstopper performance of the dance from the movie Patan. Respected Principal Dr.Indira congratulated the little talent and gave away a small token of love.

In the afternoon, a relatively light session was arranged in the college computer lab, aimed at assessing the awareness among the boys about menstrual products and products related to women to sensitise the “OTHER” and generate awareness among the gent’s folk in particular about their female counterparts. The event included a fun quiz. Students of the ENGLISH department developed and executed the event well. Special mention - Athulya and team.

The event was followed by a PPT presentation on menstrual hygiene and menstrual products like menstrual cups. The presentation by Fathima Hanna aimed to provide knowledge and awareness about menstrual hygiene and products to the audience.

Presentation Details:

The presentation started with an introduction to menstrual hygiene and the importance of maintaining proper hygiene during menstruation. The presenter discussed the different menstrual products available in the market and their pros and cons.

The presentation focused on menstrual cups, which are becoming increasingly popular due to their eco-friendly nature and convenience. The presenter explained what menstrual cups are, how they work, and how to use them. The audience was also informed about the various benefits of menstrual cups, such as their cost-effectiveness, reduced environmental impact, and longer wear time compared to other menstrual products.

The presenter also addressed some common misconceptions about menstrual cups, such as the belief that they are uncomfortable or difficult to use. The audience was shown how to insert and remove a menstrual cup, and the presenter emphasised the importance of proper cleaning and maintenance.

In addition to menstrual cups, the presenter also discussed other menstrual products, such as tampons and sanitary pads. The audience was informed about the pros and cons of these products and how to choose the right product for their needs.

The presentation concluded with a Q&A session, where the audience could ask questions and clarify any doubts they had. The presenter and moderator of the program Dr. Shimna Suresh answered all questions, providing the audience with a clear understanding of menstrual hygiene and products.

The PPT presentation on menstrual hygiene and menstrual products like menstrual cups was a success, and it provided valuable information to the audience. The presentation helped to raise awareness about menstrual hygiene and products and encourage the use of eco-friendly menstrual products like menstrual cups. More such presentations will continue to be organised in the future, promoting menstrual hygiene and empowering women to make informed choices about their menstrual health.

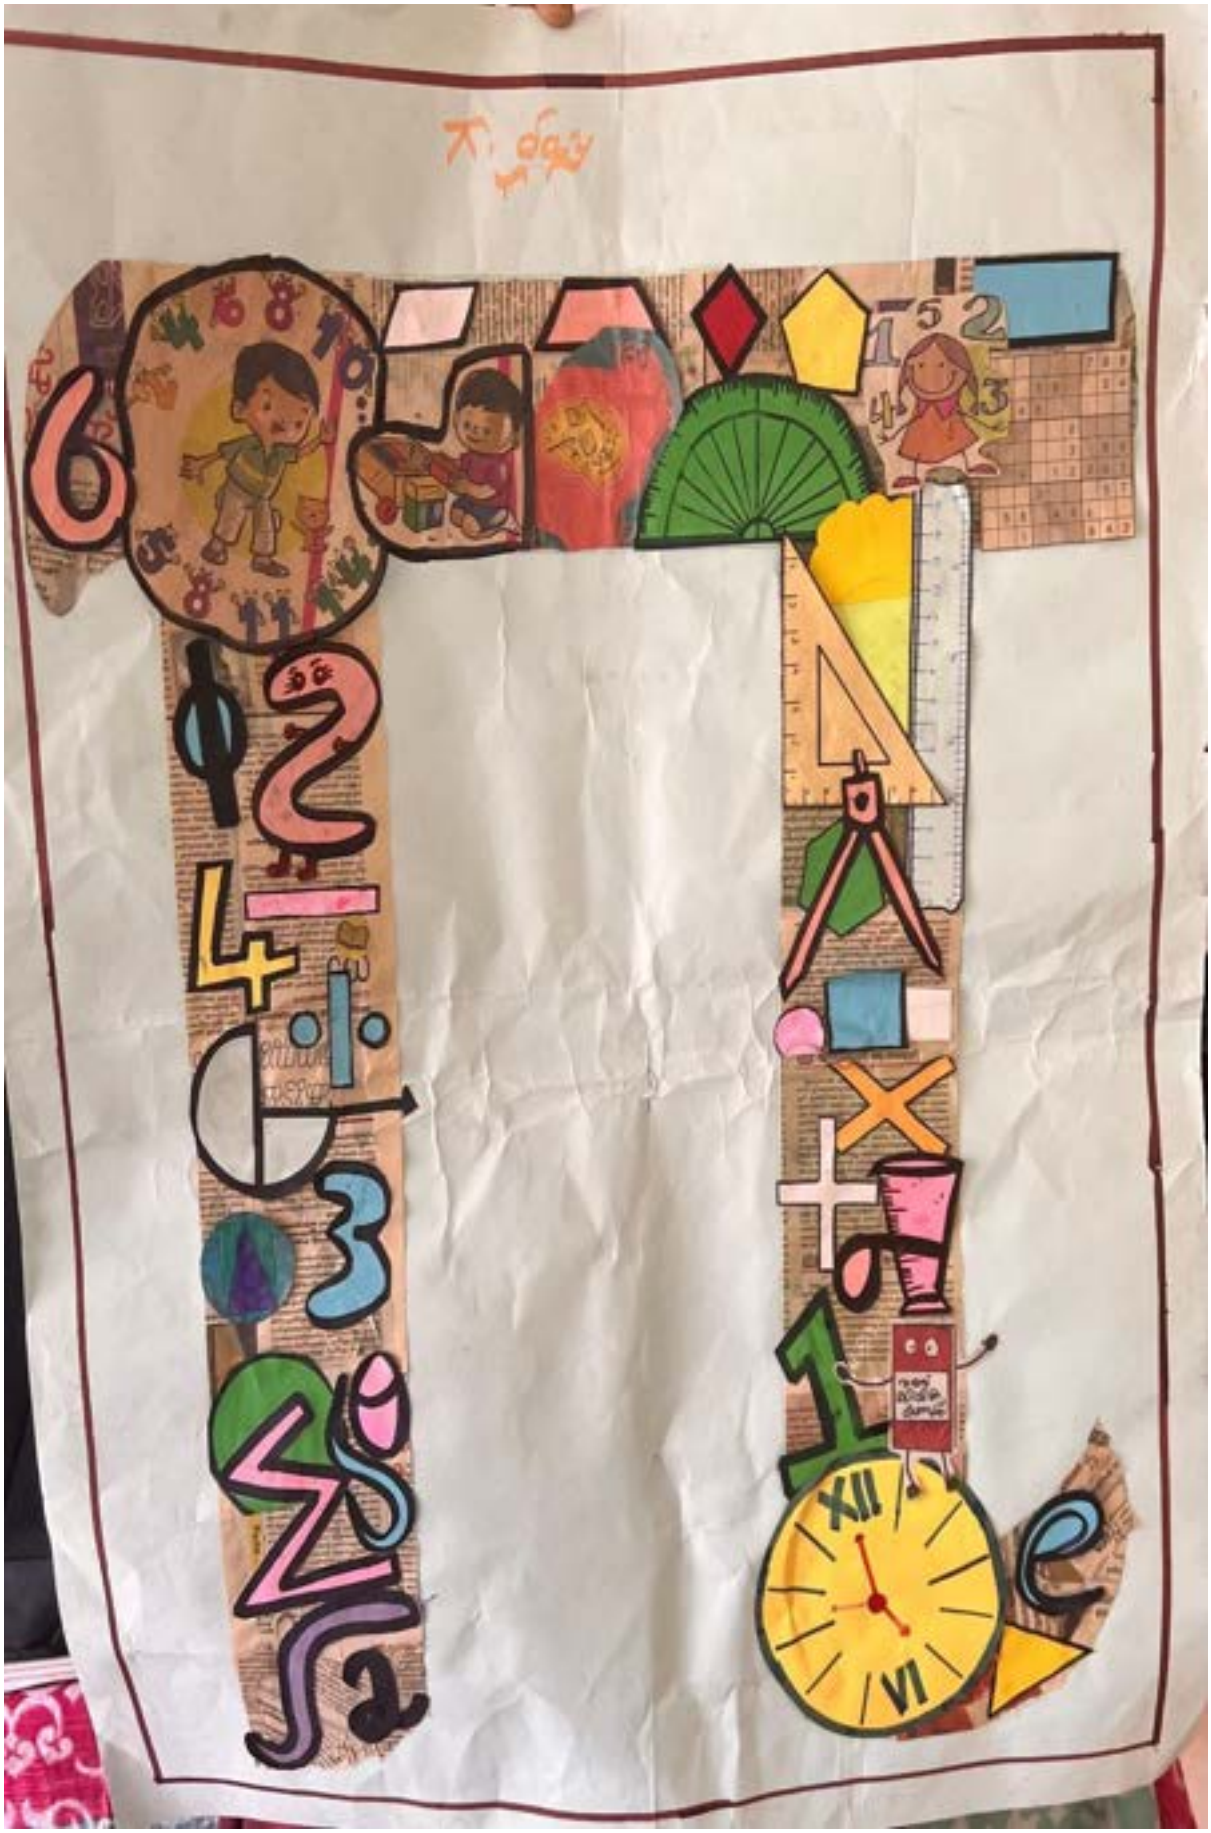

Conclusion:

The International Women's Day celebration in our B.Ed College was a huge success, and it provided an excellent platform to recognize and celebrate the contributions of women in education and society and create an awareness on menstrual health and wellbeing. The event helped to promote gender equality and women's empowerment and fostered a sense of community among the students and faculty members. The event also served as a reminder of the importance of women's health education and the need to support women in ensuring social equity.

Overall, the event was informative, engaging, and enjoyable, and it successfully highlighted the significance of women in education and society. More events will continue to be organised in the future, encouraging more students to take up careers in education and work towards a more equal and empowered society.

On March 14, 2023, CICS College of Teacher Education hosted a dynamic and purposeful dual event—a Campus Placement Program in collaboration with Sri Veda Group of Institutions, Hyderabad, along with a vibrant celebration of Pi Day. This unique combination of professional opportunity and academic celebration made for a memorable day on campus.

Campus Placement Program

The primary aim of the placement drive was to connect aspiring educators with prospective teaching opportunities. A total of 18 students participated in the program:

- 15 candidates from CICS College
- 3 candidates from the Government Physical Education College

The recruitment team conducted structured interviews and one-on-one interactions to evaluate candidates' teaching potential. The result was highly encouraging—15 candidates were selected, with 5 of them receiving offer letters on the spot, a testament to the recruiters' confidence in their competence and readiness.

Pi Day Celebration

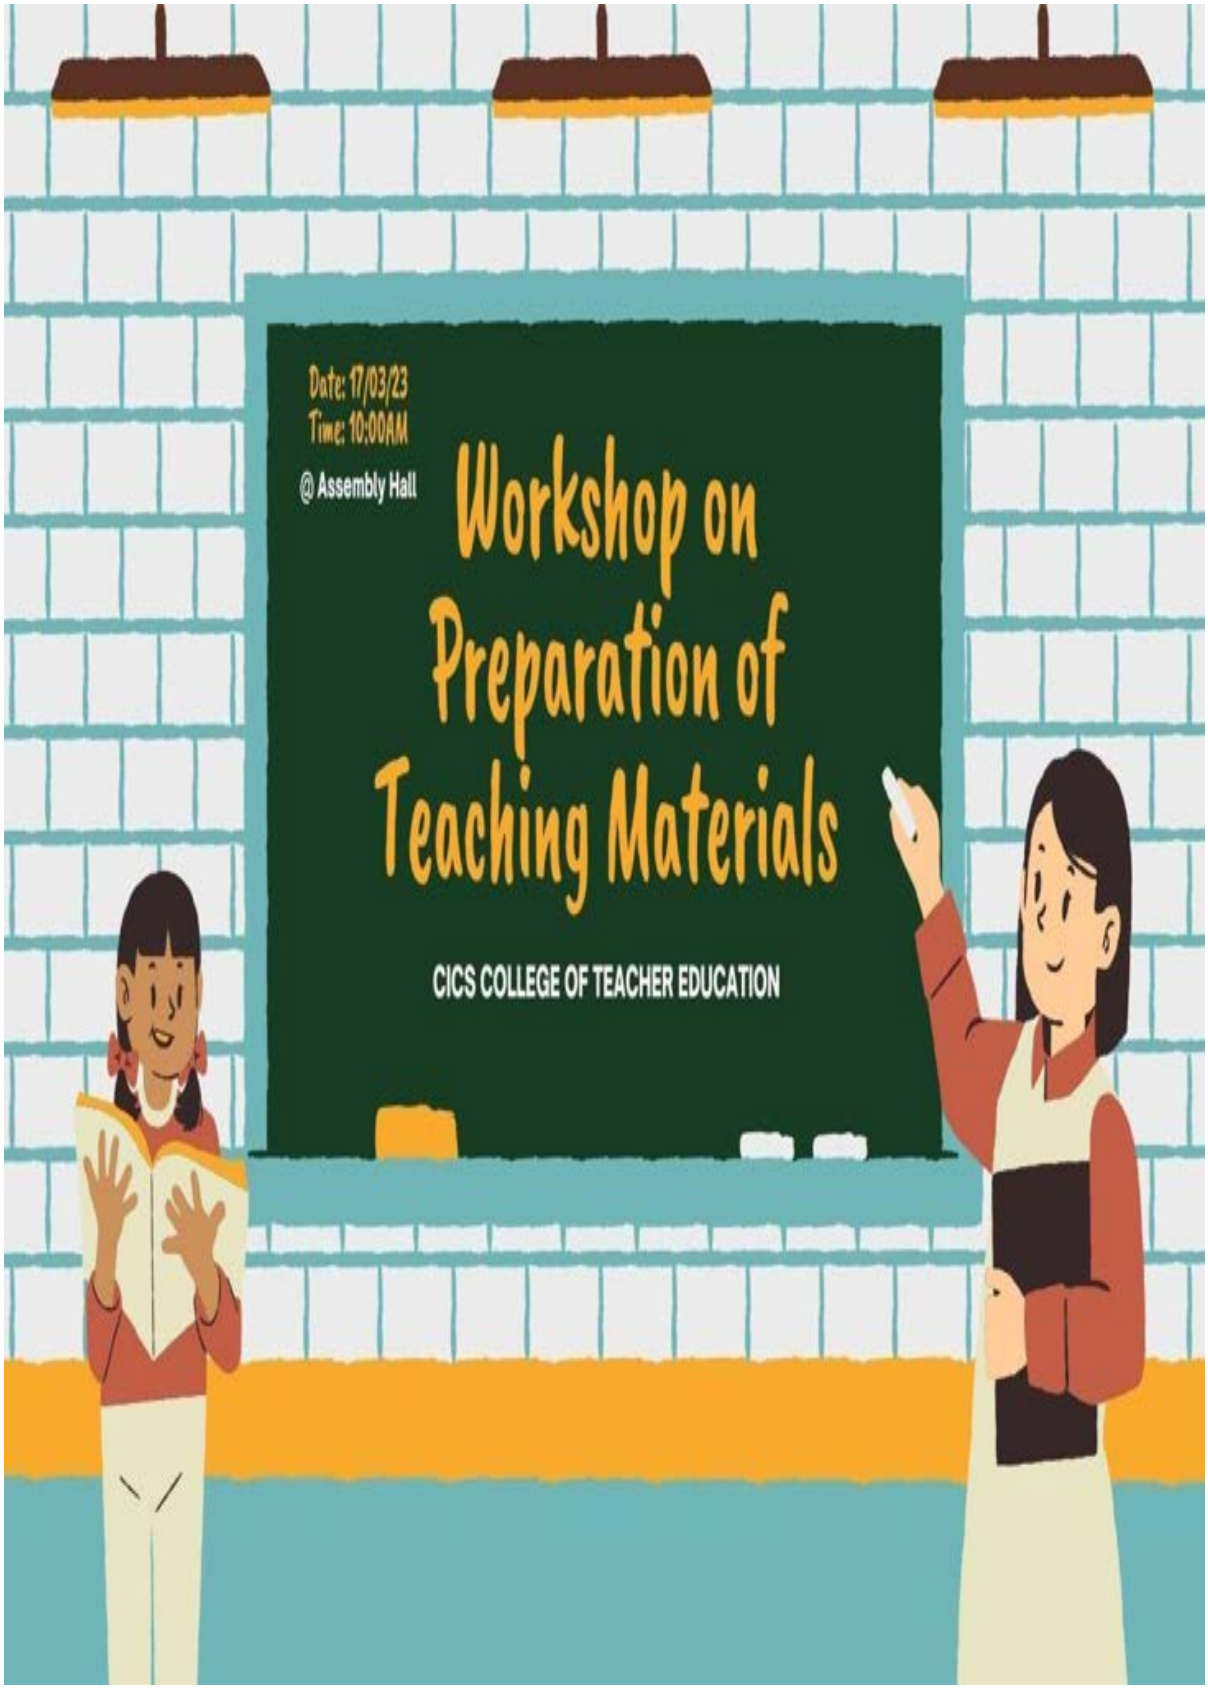

Simultaneously, students and faculty marked Pi Day (3.14) with engaging math-themed activities. These included:

- A quiz competition on mathematical concepts
- A presentation on the history and significance of π (pi)
- Creative displays and models illustrating the infinite nature of pi and its real-world applications

The celebration of Pi Day fostered curiosity, fun, and a renewed appreciation for mathematics among students and staff alike.

Together, the campus placement initiative and Pi Day observance reflected the college's commitment to holistic student development—balancing career readiness with academic engagement in a truly inspiring manner.

30) International English Language Day Celebration 2023

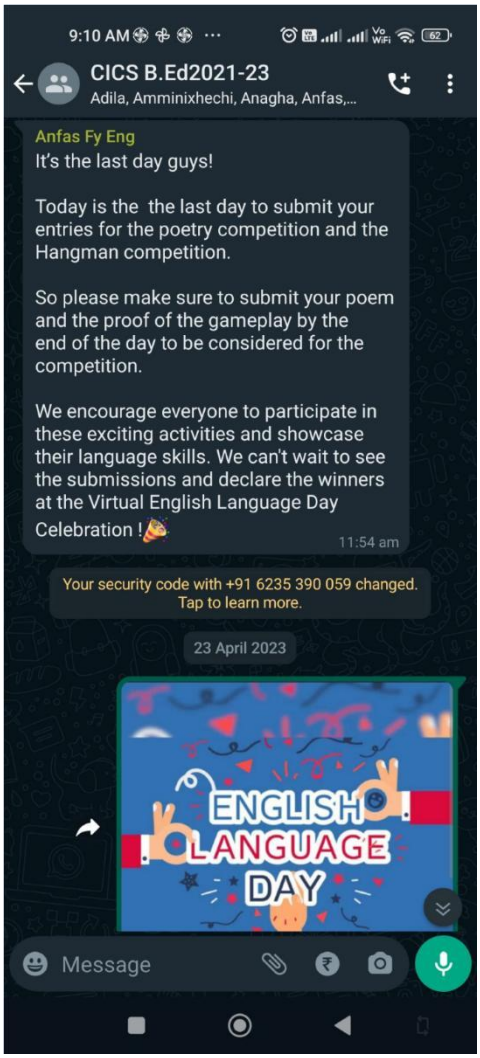

Report

English Language Day is an international observance celebrated on April 23 every year to commemorate the birth and death anniversary of William Shakespeare, a renowned English playwright and poet. On this occasion, the English Club of the College of Teacher Education, ACROLECT HEADS organized various activities to celebrate the richness and diversity of the English language.The event aimed to promote the English language and encourage students to develop their English language skills.

The English Club ACROLECT HEADS hosted a series of exciting competitions that aimed to showcase the beauty and diversity of the English language. The competitions were held virtually since the college was shut for summer vacation. The Captains of the programme were Ms. Minnah and Mr. Anfas of the Senior Batch with the full support of the entire stream including the Freshmen and Sophomore batches.

Screenshot of the preps/ announcement preceding World English language Day.

A quick overview of the competitions that took place on that day is given below.

1)OG Shakespeare is a poetry writing competition open for all. There is no specific topic for the poem to be prepared too. The poem should not exceed 4 stanzas.

2)Word king is a letter guessing game that will be conducted via Hangman Application available on play-store/Appstore. The one who scores maximum coins within a stipulated time frame will be the winner ! 🏆

3)Movie pool is an inventory of our favourite movies and series. We will be collecting the names of films and series with the help of a google form.

4)Finger fumbler is a tongue twister competition. We will be providing a list of tongue twisters. The participants must utter those at a stretch and record them as WhatsApp audio messages. That can be submitted as the entries for the competition.

5)Just a Minute(JAM) is an interesting game in which you should speak on a topic within a minute.

The entries can be submitted as WhatsApp audio messages.

TEAM ENGLISH (SENIORS) with the Teacher

We received excellent submissions for the competitions from both the students and the faculty ☺!

The winners of the competitions are listed as follows.

- ☐ Tongue Twisters Challenge: Adila T K (PS- sophomore)
- ☐ Hangman Competition: Fathimahanna (PS- sophomore)
- ☐ Poetry Competition: Smt. Shyja K G (Assistant Professor PS)

Overall, the English Language Day event was a great success, and the English Club received positive feedback from attendees. The event helped promote the importance of learning English and provided students with an opportunity to enhance their language skills. The English Club plans to continue organizing similar events in the future to promote language learning and cultural exchange among students.

The celebration of English Language Day by the English Club of the College of Teacher Education provided a platform for the students to showcase their language skills and creativity. The event also highlighted the importance of English as a global language and the need for students to master the language for their academic and professional growth.

31) World Environment Day Celebration

Report

Date : 5 June, 2023

Time : 10:00 AM
Venue : CICS College of Teacher Education

CICS College of Teacher Education celebrated World Environment Day on June 5, 2023, with great enthusiasm and vibrant student participation. The event was designed to foster environmental awareness and inspire eco-friendly practices among future educators.

As part of the celebration, students enthusiastically took part in two key activities:

- Collage-Making Competition
- Environmental Quiz Competition

Both competitions were centred around pressing environmental themes, offering students a creative and intellectually stimulating platform to express their ideas and increase their awareness of environmental challenges.

In addition to these competitions, students actively participated in a campus tree planting initiative. They brought a variety of saplings and planted them within the college premises, reinforcing the importance of environmental stewardship and sustainable living. This hands-on activity not only beautified the campus but also cultivated a sense of responsibility towards protecting nature.

The celebration served as a meaningful step in promoting environmental consciousness within the academic community. It empowered students to adopt sustainable practices and become proactive contributors to a greener future.

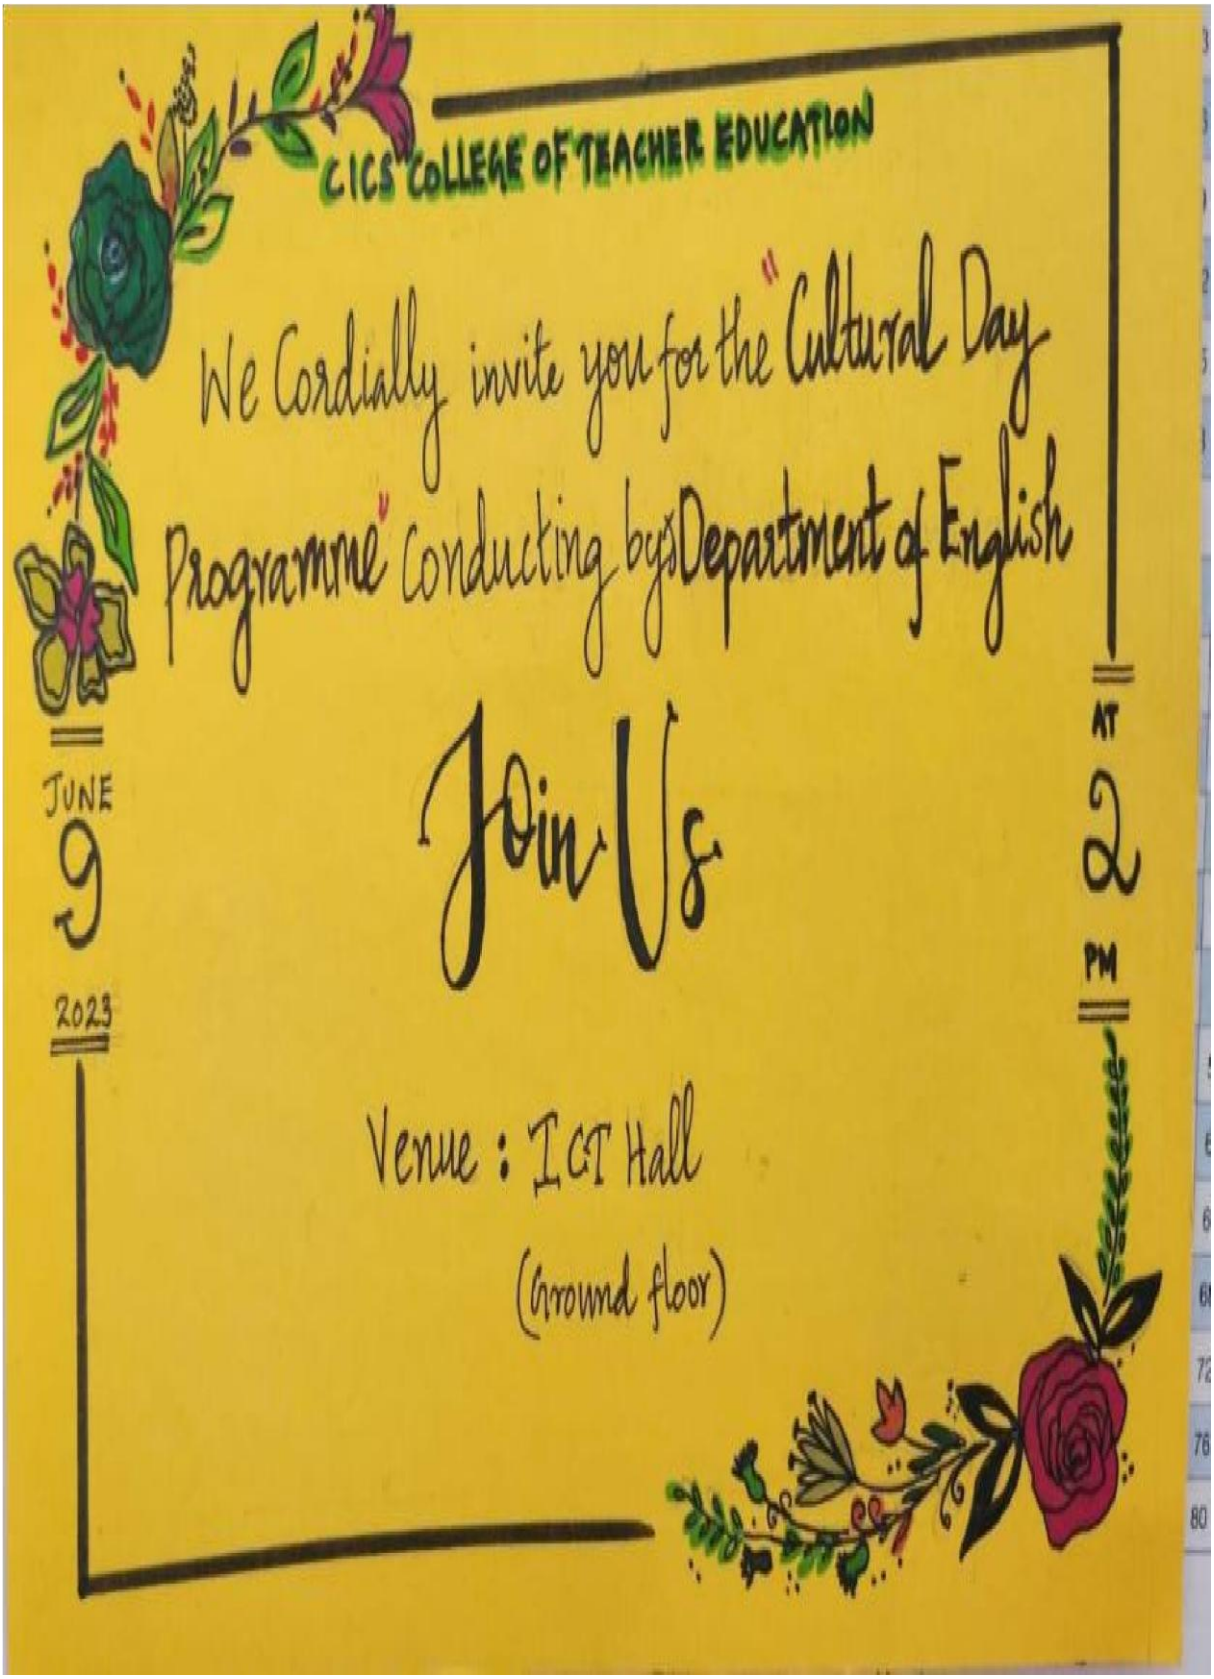

32) Arts Fest Celebrated as part of LITERARY ASSOCIATION MERAKI

Report

Introduction

The Arts Fest MERAKI, organised and executed by the English students of the College, conducted on June 9 2023 at the college ICT Resource Room was a delightful showcase of talent, creativity, and teamwork.

The event aimed to provide a platform for the students to explore various art forms, express themselves, and foster a vibrant cultural environment on campus. This report highlights the diverse range of activities that took place during the Arts Fest, including song and dance performances, a 'Pop Oppana' session, interactive games, and a lively session of dumb charades based on popular movies.

The event anchor was Ms.Thulasi.

Song and Dance Performances

The Arts Fest commenced with a captivating display of song and dance performances. Students showcased their vocal prowess and rhythmic abilities through solo and group performances. The event featured a variety of genres, ranging from classical to contemporary, ensuring a delightful experience for the audience. The students' dedication and hard work were evident in their synchronised choreography and soulful renditions, leaving the spectators enthralled.

Pop Oppana

Following the mesmerising performances, the Arts Fest embraced an interactive session called "Pop Oppana," where students engaged in a dance performance which was a blend of pop and culture. This session provided a platform for comic exchanges and fostered a sense of camaraderie among the attendees. Team English

Conclusion

The Arts Fest organised by the English students of the College was an immense success, providing a vibrant platform for the celebration of various art forms. The event showcased the students' talents, creativity, and passion for the arts while fostering a sense of unity and camaraderie among participants. Through song and dance performances, interactive games, and the lively session of dumb charades on movies, the Arts Fest left a lasting impact on all attendees, nurturing a love for the arts and encouraging cultural exploration. The event served as a testament to the students' dedication and enthusiasm and will undoubtedly be cherished as a memorable highlight of their academic journey.

33) Self-Awareness & Confidence Building Day

Report

Date : 12th June 2023
Venue : Conference Hall, CICS College of Teacher Education

CICS College of Teacher Education successfully organized a Self-Awareness & Confidence Building Day on 12th June 2023 in the college Conference Hall. The event was aimed at empowering students and aspiring teachers by helping them explore their inner potential and build self-confidence, essential qualities for effective teaching and leadership.

The program was inaugurated by Mr T. V. Krishna Prakash, an eminent speaker and motivational trainer. In his inaugural address, Mr Krishna Prakash emphasized the importance of self-awareness in shaping one's identity and the critical role confidence plays in both personal and professional success. He shared personal experiences and insights that inspired the participants to reflect on their goals and self-beliefs.

Following the inauguration, Mr Krishna Prakash conducted an engaging and transformative session titled "Unleash – A Session for Self-Awareness and Confidence Building." The session was highly interactive, involving group activities, self-assessment exercises, and motivational storytelling. Participants were encouraged to identify their strengths and limitations, confront self-doubt, and take steps toward self-growth and positive thinking.

The session was well-received by the students and faculty alike, who appreciated the practical techniques and enthusiastic delivery. Many participants expressed that the session helped them gain clarity, motivation, and a renewed sense of purpose.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to Mr. Krishna Prakash for his valuable time and inspiring contribution, as well as to the organizing team for their efforts in making the event a success.

The Self-Awareness & Confidence Building Day served as a powerful reminder of the importance of inner growth and self-belief in the journey of becoming effective educators and responsible individuals.

36) Awareness Class and Hand-out Release on the World Day of Protection of Women & Girls

CICS COLLEGE OF TEACHER EDUCATION,
MATHARA
HANDOUT RELEASE ON THE WORLD DAY OF
PROTECTION OF WOMEN & GIRLS
DATE: 4TH DECEMBER 23
@CONFERENCE HALL

Introduction

The International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women will mark the launch of the UNiTE campaign (Nov 25- Dec 10) — an initiative of 16 days of activism concluding on the day that commemorates the International Human Rights Day (10 December). This 2023 campaign Invest to Prevent Violence against Women & Girls will call on citizens to show how much they care about ending violence against women and girls and call on governments worldwide to share how they are investing in gender-based violence prevention.

The theme for International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women 2023 is "UNITE! Invest to prevent violence against women and girls". The theme for this year focuses on the need for funding prevention strategies to stop violence against women. On the 4 th of December 2023, the Anti-Harassment Wing of our B.Ed College under the supervision of the faculty member Shimna Suresh, conducted an awareness class in commemoration of the World Day of Protection of Women and girls. The purpose of the event was to educate and empower individuals to combat harassment against women and girls, fostering a safer environment.

Event Highlights

☐ Awareness Class:The awareness class by the speaker commenced with a detailed presentation on various forms of harassment against women, emphasising the importance of recognizing and addressing such incidents.

☐ The speaker shared insights on legal aspects like the POSH ACT (Prevention of Sexual Harassment at workplace), psychological impact of damaging attitudes like GASLIGHTING, and preventive measures related to harassment.

☐ Interactive Sessions: The speaker engaged in discussions and interactive sessions allowing participants to share their perspectives, experiences, and concerns about harassment, fostering a sense of community awareness.

☐ Release of Handout: A comprehensive e handout containing essential information and helpful communication contacts in case of emergency was distributed to all participants through the common WhatsApp group. The handout included emergency helpline numbers, contact details of local support organisations, and guidance on reporting incidents.

☐ Empowerment Strategies: The class focused on empowering individuals with practical strategies to intervene and support victims of harassment, promoting a culture of solidarity and active involvement in combating such issues.

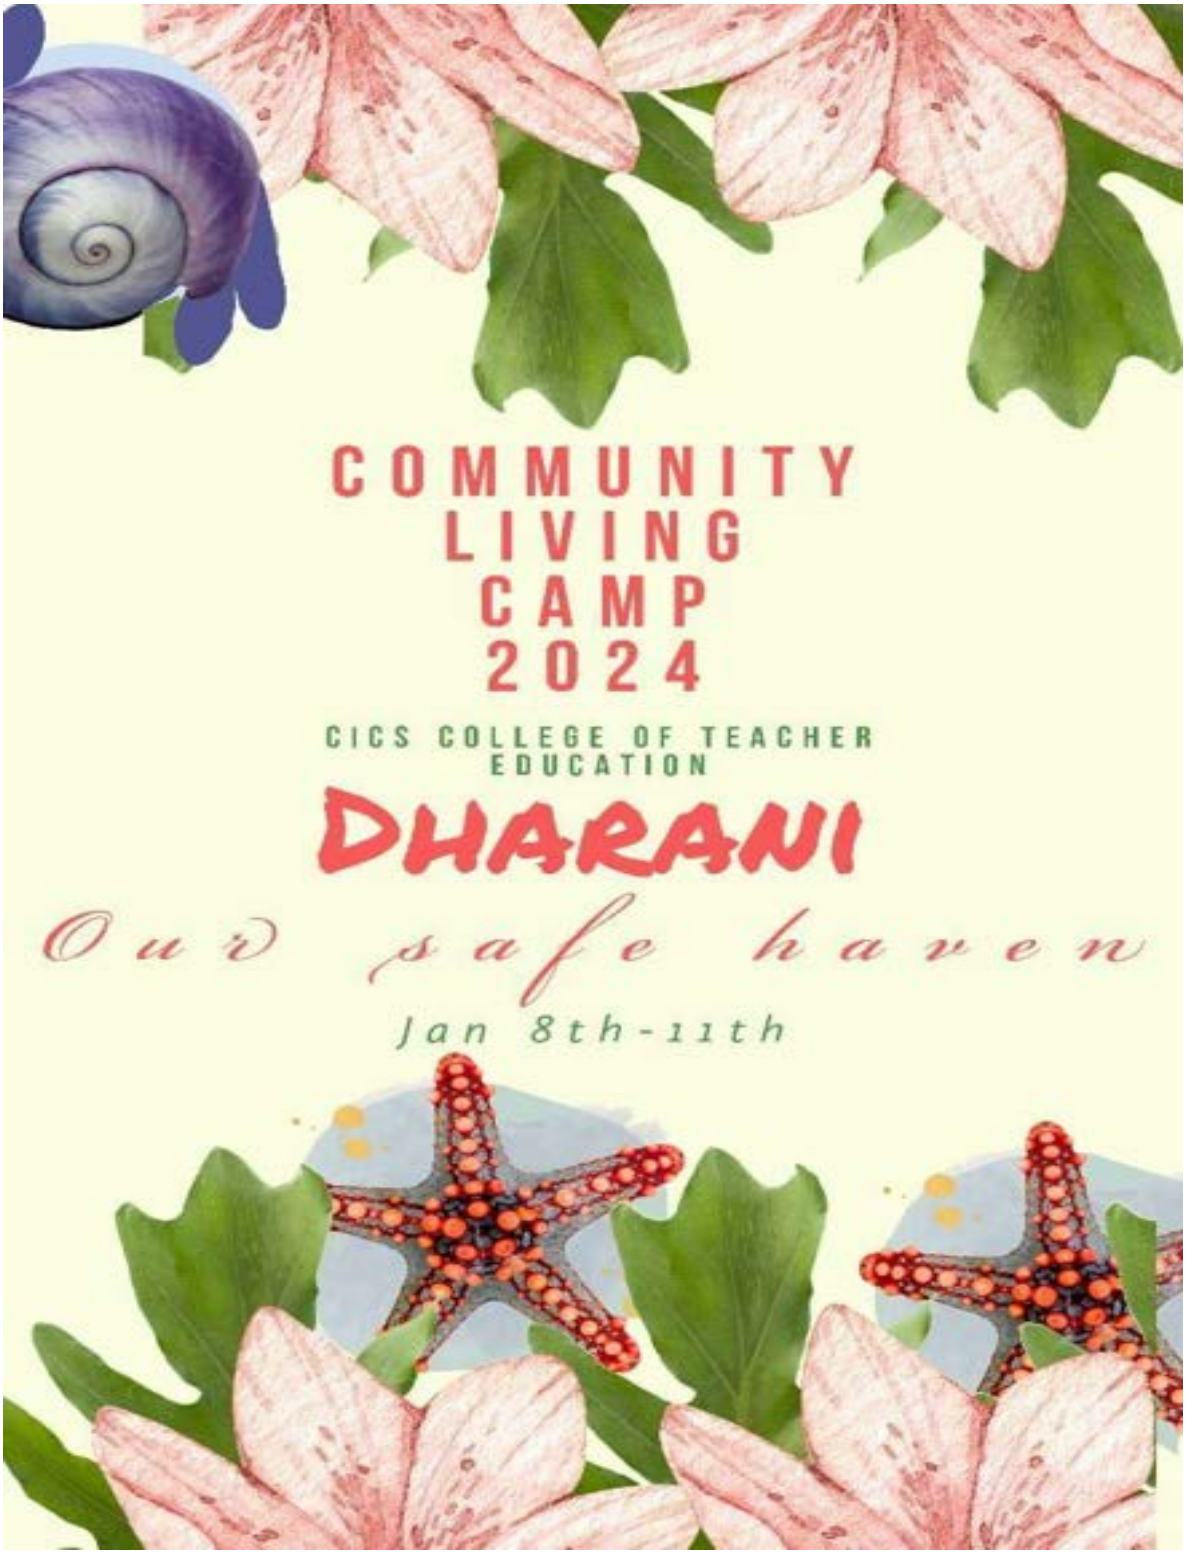

☐ Q&A Session: A question-and-answer session allowed participants to seek clarifications, share personal experiences, and further enhance their understanding of harassment-related issues.

Conclusion

The awareness class on the World Day of Protection of Women, organised by the Anti-Harassment Wing of the B.Ed College, proved to be a significant step in fostering a safer and more informed community. The release of the handout with essential communication contacts further equips individuals to respond effectively to incidents of harassment.

The active involvement of students aided in promoting awareness and contributing to the collective effort to combat harassment against women and children.

39) Post Office Savings Scheme Orientation Programme

Report

Date : 31/01/24

Time : 2:30PM

The Post Office Savings Scheme Orientation Programme was successfully organized by CICS College of Teacher Education on 31st January 2024 at the ICT Hall. The session was conducted by Mr. Sathian N (Marketing, India Post) and Mr. Vijayagopal (Mail Overseer, South Sub Division).

The session commenced at 2:30 PM, with Mr. Sathian introducing himself and Mr. Vijayagopal to the audience. Mr. Sathian led the session and began by engaging the students with a simple question: "Have you ever sent a handwritten letter by post?" To this, only a few students raised their hands, highlighting the shift from traditional mail to modern digital communication.

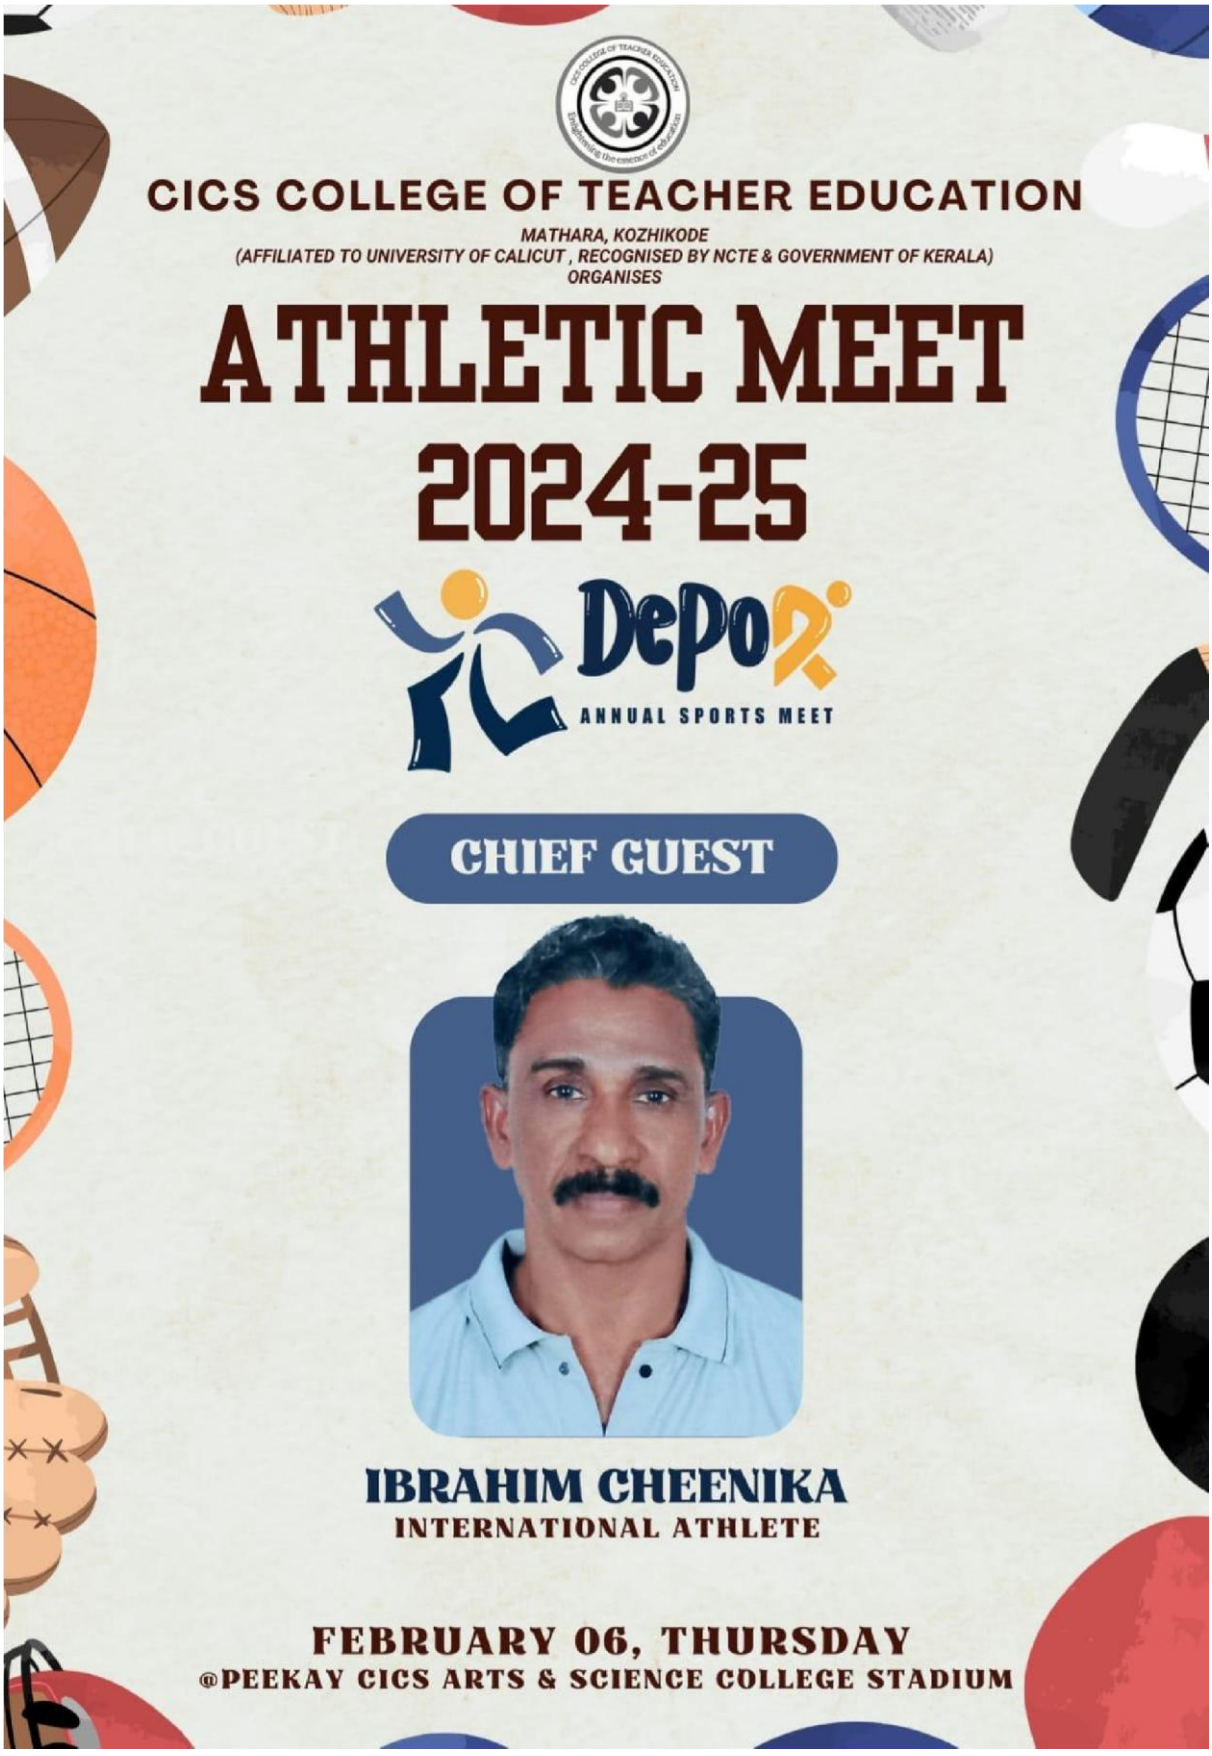

He took us on an insightful journey through the history and evolution of the Indian Postal Service. He highlighted the once-bustling nature of post offices in the past and contrasted it with the digital age, where mobile phones and other devices have taken over much of personal and professional communication.

The session shed light on the fascinating process behind delivering a letter—from the moment it’s posted to the moment it arrives at the right doorstep. He also discussed his role in India Post, the various career opportunities within the postal system, and how one can pursue a career in the government sector through these roles.

Mr. Sathian emphasized the unique emotional experience of receiving a handwritten letter through a postman—a feeling that no digital message can truly replace.

The session concluded at 3:30 PM. As a gesture of appreciation, a token of gratitude was presented to the guests on behalf of the students and faculty of CICS College of Teacher Education.

47) College Trip –Bangalore

Report

Organized by: CICS College of Teacher Education
Batch: 2022–24
Date of Trip: 9th January 2024
Destination: Bangalore, Karnataka

🌟 Introduction

The students of the 2022–24 batch of CICS College of Teacher Education embarked on an educational and recreational trip to Bangalore on 9th January 2024. The trip was designed to offer a blend of nature, history, wildlife, and urban culture, providing a holistic learning experience outside the classroom. 🗺️ Places Visited

🌿 Lalbagh Botanical Garden

Our first stop was the iconic Lalbagh Botanical Garden, a lush green haven in the heart of Bangalore. We explored the glasshouse, admired the diverse plant species, and learned about the garden’s historical significance dating back to the 18th century.

🏛️ Vidhana Soudha & Museum

We then visited the majestic Vidhana Soudha, the seat of the Karnataka State Legislature. Though entry inside was restricted, we observed its grand architecture and visited the nearby museum to understand the political and administrative history of the state.

🐾 Bannerghatta National Park & Biological Park

A major highlight of the trip was the visit to Bannerghatta National Park and its adjoining Biological Park. We witnessed a variety of animals including tigers, lions, elephants, and exotic birds. The safari experience was both thrilling and educational.

🏞️ Nandi Hills

The scenic beauty of Nandi Hills left everyone spellbound. The panoramic views, cool breeze, and serene atmosphere made it a perfect spot for relaxation and group bonding.

🛍️ Commercial Street & Shivaji Nagar Market

To wrap up the day, we explored the bustling Commercial Street and Shivaji Nagar Market. These vibrant shopping hubs gave us a taste of Bangalore’s urban culture, where students enjoyed shopping, street food, and interacting with locals.

Experience & Reflections

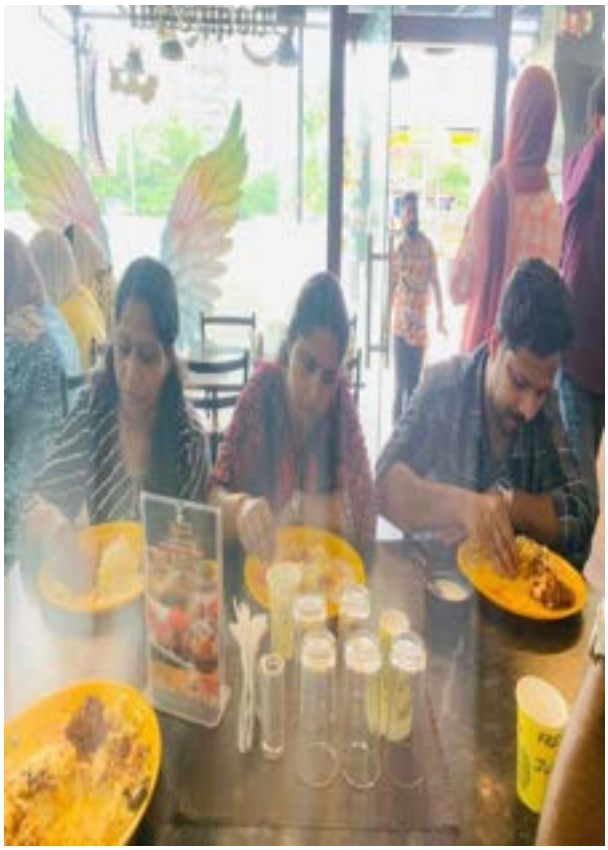

The trip was a perfect blend of learning and leisure. It helped us appreciate the ecological, historical, and cultural richness of Bangalore. The camaraderie among students and faculty made the experience even more memorable. We returned with not just souvenirs, but also cherished memories and a deeper understanding of the world beyond textbooks.

📸 Conclusion

The Bangalore trip was a resounding success, offering a refreshing break from routine academics while enriching our knowledge and perspectives. We extend our heartfelt thanks to the college management and faculty for organizing such a meaningful and enjoyable excursion.

48) Field Trip Report: One-Day Visit to Vadakara

Report

Organized by: CICS College of Teacher Education

Date of Trip: 11th June 2024
Destination: Vadakara, Kerala

🌟 Introduction

As part of our academic enrichment and exposure to local heritage and ecology, the students of CICS College of Teacher Education undertook a one-day field trip to Vadakara on 11th June 2024. The trip aimed to provide firsthand experience of the region’s natural beauty, cultural significance, and historical landmarks.

🗺️ Places Visited

🌊 Payyoli Azhimugam

Our first destination was the serene Payyoli Azhimugam, where the river meets the Arabian Sea. The tranquil estuary offered a breathtaking view and a peaceful environment. Students enjoyed the scenic beauty, observed the coastal ecosystem, and took part in group activities by the shore.

🌳 Kandal Kadu (Mangrove Forest)

Next, we explored the Kandal Kadu, a unique mangrove forest near Vadakara. This visit was both educational and eye-opening, as we learned about the ecological importance of mangroves in protecting coastal areas and supporting biodiversity. The walk through the wooden pathways amidst the dense greenery was a memorable experience.

🏛️ Vadakara Museum

The final stop was the museum in Vadakara, which showcased the region’s rich cultural and historical heritage. Exhibits included artifacts, traditional tools, and displays related to the legendary heroes of North Malabar, especially Thacholi Othenan. The museum visit deepened our understanding of local history and folklore.

☺ Experience & Reflections

The field trip to Vadakara was a refreshing and informative experience. It allowed us to connect classroom learning with real-world observations. The natural beauty of Payyoli, the ecological insights from Kandal Kadu, and the cultural knowledge gained at the museum made the trip truly enriching.

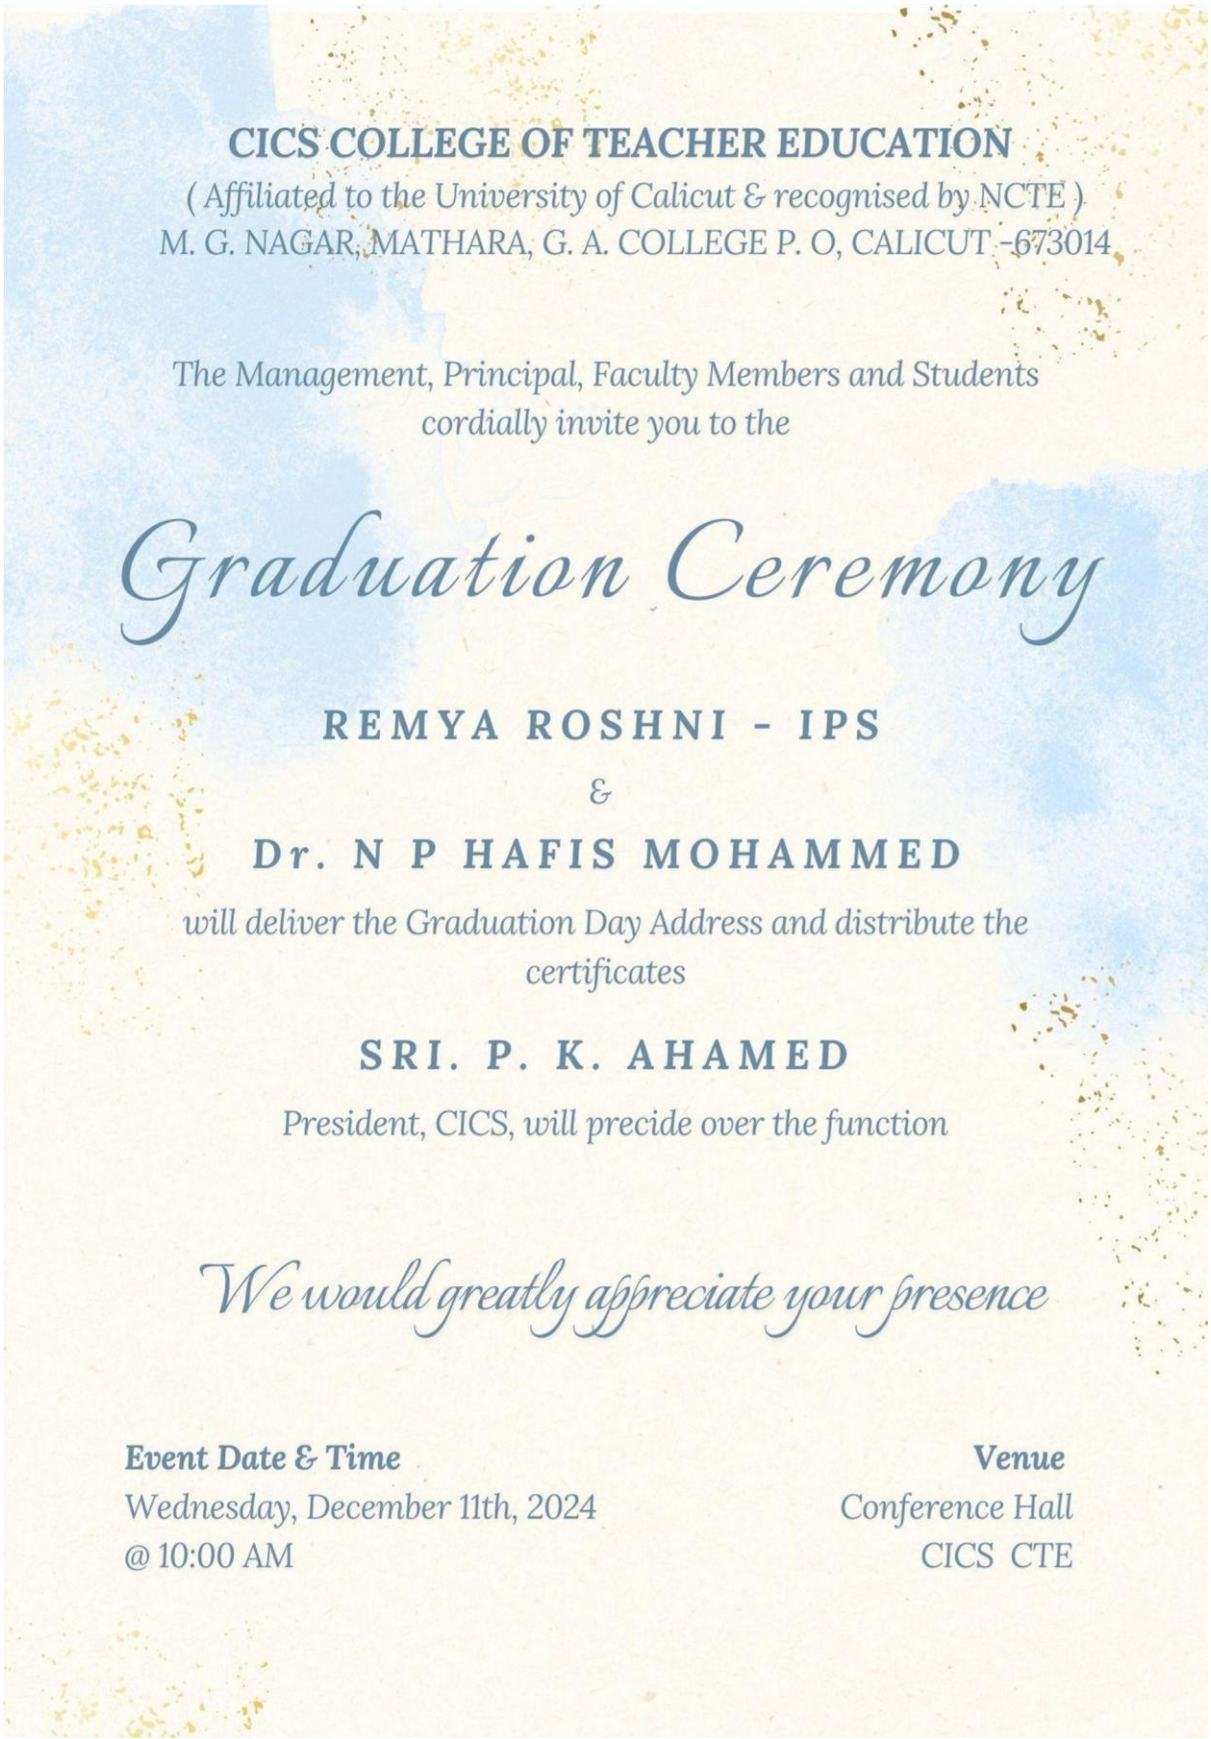

Conclusion
The one-day trip to Vadakara was a perfect blend of education and enjoyment. We thank our faculty and college management for organizing this meaningful excursion and look forward to more such opportunities in the future.
